CIRCULAR ON INCLUSIVE INDIA PROGRAM

Different Art Centre, with the support (non-financial) of the Department of Empowerment of Persons with Disabilities, Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, Govt. of India, is conducting an All-India Travel Awareness Campaign from Kanyakumari to Kashmir, by lighting the lamps for an Inclusive India. As part of this travel awareness campaign, titled 'Inclusive India', a series of magic-based awareness programs are scheduled to be conducted from 6th October to 3rd December 2024 in different locations to convey the message of 'Social Inclusion of Persons with Disabilities'.

This is the 5th travel awareness campaign organised by the organization, after 4 successful magic-themed expeditions from Kanyakumari to Kashmir, The founder and Executive Director of DAC, Shri. Gopinath Muthukad, beyond this position, an internationally acclaimed magician, has successfully utilized this art form 'Magic', to spread several socially relevant messages such as national integration, heritage values, anti-communalism, ant-terrorism etc.

As the campaign is to be started from Kanyakumari on 6th October 2024, the Take-off event of this program is scheduled to be conducted at NICHE Deemed to be University, Kanyakumari at 10.30 AM. This program will be conducted with the support of NICHE.

Distinguished guests like Shri. Gopinath Muthukad, the Founder and Executive Director of DAC, Shri M S Faizal Khan, Pro-Chancellor, District Collector, Superintendent of Police and others will be part of this Take-off event. Cultural performances by differently-abled students from the Different Art Centre (DAC) and Awareness Magical performance by Shri. Gopinath Muthukad, are also part of this event.
